Why?

- * I think there is wonderful environment at the Oratory school and a great feeling of community.
- * Very well led school.
- * It is safe and very lovely place for the kids to be.
- * Positive environment. Easy to deal with.
- * Always looking to improve.
- * Because the children are well behaved compared to other schools around.
- * I think most kids would thrive here.
- * We like that it promotes values, enthusiasm and independence as opposed to a blind focus on academic achievement.
- * The school is well organised, it supports families and their kids. I feel very lucky that my kids come to this school.
- * My children are been prepared for the future, developing a confident life and making good progress.
- * The offer of parental support - Wednesday workshops.
- * The staff are polite and friendly with the children. My child is very happy.
- * Teachers are very good.
- * Because they teach children respect for each other and other families.
- * It is a nice school and the children always seem happy.
- * Children are very well looked after.
- * The school is making a lot of effort to make sure our children are getting quality education.
- * The school has instilled good discipline on children and embraces values and respect for education.
- * Good school both my children have learnt a lot coming here.
- * It is a good school.
- * It helps with my child's education.
- * I think the school has really started.
- * Overall my children are learning and improving in school life at the Oratory.

- * There is discipline in this school and kids are not only encouraged to work hard but also to behave in the everyday life.
- * In general the standard of the school is good.

- Why?
- * I think the school has really started to struggle as of late, it needs more support.
 - * I haven't felt as confident about the school since she started and it had a bad Ofsted. *
 - * School gave enough notice on events.
 - * I am not kept informed of events at the school that affect my child and some of them do not appear on the website.

What the school does well..

- * Encouraging.
- * Communication with parents.

- * Making sure children reach their full potential.
- * Everything is well.
- * Has a family feel to learning.
- * Encourages children to be the best they can be.
- * There are a lot of activities for the kids and the learning is excellent.
- * Good guidance on what is expected.
- * I am happy they are starting to pray and singing and do some homework.
- * The school is good for kids to learn about religion, to behave well and also to have good knowledge of respect for all.
- * Teaches values and prepares polite kids.
- * I am so happy with school because it is a very good school and safe plus learning is very good. My son is doing well and he gets a lot of help.
- * Great staff.
- * Encourages independence.
- * The school always does well by teaching the children on how to behave and respect others.
- * Creating a happy learning environment for the children. XXX would attend school over the weekend if she could.
- * Looking after my child is good. My child feel free like [school is] his home.
- * School is good because there are not many children and the teachers devote time to each students.
- * Keep parents fully informed.
- * My child gets homework every week.
- * I am very happy with everything done at school.
- * Parents participation towards pupils' learning.
- * They stick with their religious education and their other subjects.
- * Works so well considering it does not seem to get the support it deserves.
- * Help children to respect each other and adults. Also help them recognise the child's strength and weaknesses.
- * Takes into account each child's requirements/needs and the school is able to adapt to learning needs.
- * Keep doing the things they do. It is good.
- * I notice the school is improving in many aspects, the new [staff are] fantastic.

- * Great learning support.
- * The school makes sure my child is well prepared for the future developing confidence in his academic [ability].
- * Gives and implements a positive attitude to learning, motivation and self-confidence for children which will help them in life.
- * The school supports my child in every aspect. They care about the safety of the child.

Even better if...

- * More Catholic Values were present [amongst other families]. I attended the open air mass and was alarmed to see how many parents did not participate in the mass.
- * I was told Year 2 toilets are in a very poor state and mostly no paper to use. Hope this can be addressed.

- * More Sports activities.
- * The school could give more homework to children.
- * Parents were able to follow progress more closely. Tapestry in Reception was an amazing tool.
- * More homework and spelling for the children.
- * It would be better if they supported children by [offering homework club to support those whose parents' English is not as good].
- * Parents could pay for trips and dinner money on line.
- * Offer holiday clubs.
- * More workshops to understand the curriculum.
- * Better supported financially. The school has lost some really good teachers recently, this needs to be addressed.
- * The school needs to replace computers and add new technology.
- * More homework.
- * More after school clubs.
- * Teacher training days were before or after half term.
- * School was more organised.
- * Extra help for children who are falling behind.
- * Recent high turnover of staff, unsettling for children and difficult to know staff roles.
- * There would be 1 to 1 with teachers.
- * Communication, especially when it comes to unplanned days off. Too many training days.
- * The Ofsted is extremely disappointing.
- * More frequent overviews of weekly progress so that we can respond faster with any help my son my need.
- * Better communication of school events and teacher training days.
